The Ogdensburg Railroad Company have fully completed arrangements for securing a fair share of Western business during this year. Ten new first-class steam propellers, in addition to those previously running, are now ready, and will be put upon the line at the opening of navigation this Spring, and a large number of sailing vessels have been engaged to transport freight to and from the

Another Bank has been established under the New-Jersey Law, called the Wheat Growers' Bank of Sussex Co.

The bill authorizing a system of free banks based on State Stocks, passed the Committee of the Whole in the Pennsylvania House, but the motion to take it up on second reading was defeated

The select Committee on Banks in the Wisconsin Legislature is about to report a Free Banking Law.

The Philadelphia North American says In Money matters there is no material change to notice. The Banks are discounting liberally for their customers, which has the effect of keeping down the street rates. First-class paper passes reactly in the street at 74 ms P cent, and the second-class and inferior grades range between 9 and 12 preent.

The bill to incorporate the Anthracite Bank at Tamaqua, with a capital of $200,000; the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank at Allentown, with a capital of $150,000; to incorporate the Erie City Bank : the Exchange Bank, Pittsburgh : to rechar ter the Easton Bank : to incorporate the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Phomixville : the Bank at Pottstown; the Commercial Bank, at Pittsburgh; and to increase the capital of the Southwark Bank and the Bank of Commerce, of Philadelphia-all passed the Committee of the Whole in the Penn' Senate. These bills are all now on second reading and from the fact that they are all considered together, they will probably all pass that body in a day or two.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has before it bills for organizing the following new Burks: The Easton Savings Association; the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank at Phonixville, the Bank of Potstown: the Commercial Bank of Phissburgh the Bank of Newcastle, in Lawrence county; the Cunton County Bank; to increase the capital stock of the Bank of Commerce, and the authorize the Banks of the Commerce, and the substitute of the Banks of the Commerce and the substitute of the Banks of the Commerce and the substitute of the Banks of the Commerce of the Commerce of the Banks of the Commerce of the Commerc
